Is It Relevant?

Joe Slater

An elder in a congregation far from here once remarked concerning Bible classes, “If it isn’t relevant, we don’t teach it.” If I were face-to-face with him, I would ask, “Please show me the passage of Holy Scripture that isn’t relevant.” We may more easily see the relevance

The modern world detests authority but worships relevance. Our Christian conviction is that the Bible has both authority and relevance, and that the secret of both is Jesus Christ of John 3:16 than of the genealogies in First Chronicles. But those dry, dusty genealogies demonstrate how God worked with a nation of flawed people to bring forth the Savior of the world who uttered the immortal words of John 3:16. Calling any part of God’s word “irrelevant” borders on blasphemy!
~ Author: John Stott

Christ beside me, Christ before me,
Christ behind me, Christ within me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me.

~ Saint Patrick

Much of modern society deems the Bible and God to be irrelevant. That's hardly surprising, but may it never be that members of the body of Christ join that chorus! Rather, let us explain and demonstrate to the world why God and the Bible are profoundly relevant.

They are relevant because the Bible presents the truth about God!

Yes, God does exist, militant atheism to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bible begins with God as Creator, and He remains so. God is not whatever you want Him to be; He has revealed Himself in His word (Bible) and His world (creation). That's relevant!

The true God has revealed how He expects us to behave. Morality is not open to debate. Every society that has ignored God's moral standards has crumbled. Ours is on the brink. Is that relevant?

Christ's gospel is God's power to save sinful people. Perverted gospels will not save. The world may not want to hear it; timid, lukewarm brethren may not want to talk about it. But it is relevant!

Christ built His church, having purchased it with His blood. It is His spiritual body, comprised of the saved. People may not recognize such relevance, but that simply means you and I have work to do!

We need to have a brief meeting this morning to decide on protocols we need to follow.

Please do not panic but take this threat seriously and act Prudently. Wisely, and with Faith in God. And, please offer a prayer for Wuhan, China-the hardest hit by this virus.
