DECEMBER 2019 REPORT FROM CAMEROON BY ABASIAMA

It is a brand new year once again and I am thankful for all of God's blessings upon our lives. The month that ushered us into 2020 was full of gospel activities. The gospel work of our preaching resulted in the salvation of a young man named Rodney. He is our latest new convert baptized on Sunday 15th December 2019. He is 25 years old.

As the church is increasing in number to the glory of God, we are facing an ever-expanding necessity to provide spiritual support to our members. Having been in the service of this congregation for twelve years, I fully understand the various needs of church. I tried my best to play the role of a minister from January to December.

We ended the year with many challenges. In December we had a scare in the orphanage. One of our children sustained injuries in an accident. Right now as I write, I am under the dizziness of malaria medications.

Naomi in the hospital

On the last day of the month of December, the husband of our own sister Seraphine Massango passed on to eternity. the sister is now a young widow with three little boys without a father. Our church is bereaved. I don't really have much energy to write more of what is happening in Cameroon because I am going to the hospital for more treatment of my own self. But I must struggle to end the report with thanksgiving to all our supporters. Thank you.

The girl in red shirt is Naomi a few days before the accident. The former preacher Richard came visiting Regina, the foster mother to the orphans standing with the former preacher and the children .

Message from Abasiama - January 3, 2020

Happy new year sir Right now I am on medication. In addition, one of the orphans had an accident and we have all been traumatized by the horrible incident.

Message from Joe-There is much for which to pray in Cameroon. Abasiama is very sick. You can see by his report how sick he really is. I do not know about the accident to little Naomi. It is obvious how different the lives of our Brethren in Cameroon are from ours. Please be in prayer for Naomi and Abasiama. Also, pray to God in thanksgiving for our blessings here. Happy New Year from Ellabell.
