ABASIAMA'S MARCH 2020 REPORT FROM CAMEROON

To all of you dear brethren and fellow workers in Christ's Great Commission, I extend my warmest regards once again. My special monthly greeting is intended to mark the end of another month of our collective struggle to save souls. The work in the month of March 2020 was done amidst some of the most troubling social changes in a generation. The word "lockdown" has now become a very familiar vocabulary to us in Cameroon. We thank God commitment to the great commission has not wavered. We still evangelized the unsaved and God blessed our struggle with a soul He saved. Brother Rodrick is our latest new convert saved in the month of multiple lockdown.

*Let the rain wash away,
all the pain of yesterday*

month of our collective struggle to save souls. The work in the month of March 2020 was done amidst some of the most troubling social changes in a generation. The word "lockdown" has now become a very familiar vocabulary to us in Cameroon. We thank God that His Word cannot be locked down by war or diseases of this world. Expectedly, the work of preaching the word has been made harder by the pre-existing armed conflict and by the ongoing pandemic. However, our commitment to the great commission has not wavered. We still evangelized the unsaved and God blessed our struggle with a soul He saved. Brother Rodrick is our latest new convert saved in the month of multiple lockdown. Apart from special evangelism difficulties of the month, our congregational worship was equally disrupted by the newly imposed social distancing instruction.

Our attendance of the last two Sundays of the month decreased significantly because of the "stay-home" order. With such an order, there were no taxis for some brethren who live far away from the church.

Of all the events that marked our month of March, none was more devastating than the passing of our sister and mother Mama Elizabeth. She had been dealing with diabetes all these years. Her struggle to survive the chronic condition was a tough fight. Even in her 70's she still managed to come to church. She was a widow and committed grandparent who worked hard to care for orphans. Her grandchildren will greatly miss her tender care. Our congregation is in great sorrow because of her departure. Nevertheless, we still have reasons to celebrate the radiant life of mama Elizabeth. The funeral arrangement is yet to be concluded given the prevailing social lockdown that prevents the gathering of people more than two in public places. Please we need the prayers of the saints to console our church in this tough time. We know that you have been praying for the mission work in Cameroon. We believe that you will one day visit us in Cameroon. We appreciate your help and support for the great commission in Limbe. We will never stop working to serve the cause of Christ as long as life endures. Thank you for your partnership in the gospel propagation in Africa. May God bless you as always.
